ALFRED THE GREAT SCORES THIRD STRAIGHT VICTORY AT MONCRIEF.

Recent Acquisition of R. D. Williams Proving Profit able Investment-Favorites Take Four of the Six Jacksonville Purses.

Jacksonville, Fla., December 6.—Alfred the Great, the Cesarion three-year-old that R. D. Williams purchased of William Shields a few days ago, scored his third successive victory at the meeting when he shouldered top weight and won the fifth race at Monerief Park this afternoon in close to record time for the course, the six and a half furlongs being run in 1.21\(\frac{1}{2}\). He was ridden by Troxler, carried 120 pounds and won easily by a couple of lengths. Four of the six winners were favorites in the betting, two of them being at odds-on. Christina and Rosshampton won their races by necks, while half a length separated Friend Harry and Captaia Swanson from the second horses in their respective races.

There were many new arrivals this afternoon and the attendance was probably larger than on any day since the opening. Quite a delegation came from New York, among them Tom Shaw, Jack Crocker, John Powers, Ed K. Thornton and T. H. Kennedy.

John W. Schoer wired his son that he would be here some day next week and George H. Whitney has reserved six stalls for some yearlings that he will ship here from Lexington after the holidays. The stables of James Cass and A. L. Coulter arrived from Penscola. In the latter's string is the useful plater, Queen Lead.

Jockeys Musgrave and Troxler were each suspended for three days by the starter for disobedience at the post in the fifth race.

Tom Shaw will probably join the ranks of the layers operating here at the next cut-in.

W. P. Burch received a cablegram from his son Preston this morning convering the information that the four-year-old Merry Knight had beaten eleven starters in a hurdle race run in France yesterday. The cider Burch also sent a winner to the post this afternoon in Rosshampton, a colt that he is training for Samael Ross. This is the fourth race that Mr. Burch has won at the meeting.

GOSSIP FROM THE EAST.

THE USEFUL THOROUGHBRED.

The two most useful animals on the farm of Frank Thompson in Whitby township, a few miles from Oshawa, are the thoroughbred geldings Ben Crockett and Speacer Relff. Ben Crockett is a Washington Cup winner and a famous long-distance borse, like his sire, Ben Holladay. Speacer Reiff was a frequent winner across country, and a consumeror of Good and Plenty when that great jumper was at his best. They did all the fall plowing and their owners says they will accomplish far more work in the same time than the heavy horses. They are extra good road herses, and Spencer Reiff with capial facility draws a democrat wagon with a half-ton load to town in short order, or takes the family to church on Sandays.

At Mrs. Livingston's Pontiae Stock Farm, located a few miles east of Cobourg, thoroughbred mares are used to do the harvesting and light plowing with excellent results—mares that have already given winners to the turf, and are expected to produce King's Plate winners.—Toronto Globe.

RALEIGH P. D. IN FINE FETTLE.

New York, December 6.—Sheepshead Bay track is not as dull as might be expected with stables required and so many horses sent abroad. There are quite a number of horses doing light exercise outdoors now. The most prominent stable which has with the stable provided in the W. K. Vanderbilt has established a record for owners in France by winning the sum of $1,098,100 during the course of six consecutive seasons on the turf in that country. From 1904 to 1909 inclusive M. Edmond Blanc won $1,076,500 and it seemed any odds against these figures being exceeded. By winning, however, $203,750 during the racing year that closed last month, Mr. Vanderbilt must have fairly surprised himself. It is old history now how nothing would go right for him in his earlier years as an owner in France. His winnings for the past six years have been:

Year. Won. Year. Won. 1905. $20,500 1908 $20,000 1906 $250,250 1909 $23,000 1907 65,500 1910 203,750

Total $1,098,100

During the past seven seasons Edmond Blanc has won $1,199,950, he having finished second to Mr. Vanderbilt this year with $122,450.

Mention has already been made that Mr. Vanderbilt's lightweight American jockey, Frank O'Neill, had beaten all French records for the number of wins. In France alone his aggregate is 156 out of 716 mounts, to Stern's 117 out of 553. Out of France Stern has ridden thirty-five and O'Neill two winners, thus making their full totals up to 138 and 152 respectively. Thus, for the second year George Stern is deposed from a position which seemed so likely to become a monopoly with him.

Two of the three sires whose progeny have won the most money are dead. Reference is made to Simonian, $179,050, and Childwick, $82,750. Rabelais, $112,990, splits the pair. Last year Rabelais topped the list with $171,650, before Childwick and the defunct Perth. Simonian was fourth. Adam stands seventh. Times indeed change, and the once all-prominent Flying Fox has only sired winners of $17,560.

THE TOUT IN ENGLAND.

"Under modern conditions there is less wagering in the dark on the English races than used to be in evitable." writes a correspondent of Baily's Maga-zine. "Touts have helped to clear the atmosphere zine. "Touts have helped to clear the atmospher. In that respect.

"It is not practicable nowadays to keep a lame horse or one otherwise unfit to run in the market for 'miking' purposes—that is, to lay against him as if he were a perfectly genuine candidate.

"The tout is frequently up with the lark in the morning: no hour is too early for him to rise if he thinks there is a chance to see a good gallop. He may conceal himself absolutely for that purpose or he may not, but he usually courts the shade.

"Little escapes his attention. If a prominent race within the stander.

"Little escapes his attention. If a prominent race horse breaks down or goes amiss, failing to appear on the training downs to do necessary work, the news is quickly circulated through a variety of channels.

Pretty nearly everybody likely to be interested in that collapse knows all about it in a short time, so that as matters are arranged there is no opportunity to exploit such a horse for the enrichment of bookmakers.

tunity to exploit such a horse for the enrichment of bookmakers.

"That is assuredly an important reform. In fact, what used to be termed facetiously in this connection 'the dead meat market' has ceased to be a flourishing institution, and the two great opposing forces meet on more equal terms than formerly prevailed. One must not forget to give adequate credit to the racing tout for what he has accomplished. He generally works hard and conscientiously to report the exercise of the numerous horses under his observation. His life is by no means a bed of roses. "Hi is essential for him to know and remember the names of the different horses that come within his province. When talking, for instance, to a tout of tairty years' experience he prefers to be called 'a man of observation'; I was surprised by the facility with which he identified individual racers in a long string of them cantering or galloping past him in the customary routine of their morning's work."

NOTED ENGLISH SIRE IS KILLED

The death is announced of the famous stallion Eager, which shied at a motor when at exercise November 14 and broke a leg so badly that the veterinary surgeon who was called in ordered him to be destroyed.

Eager was a bay horse by Enthusiast out of Greba, and was foaled in 1894. He was bred by Mr. Fairie and was raced by that gentleman until the end of 1899, when Mr. Gilpin bought him on behalf of his patron, Ludwig Neumann, for $17,500.

Eager was a very successful race horse over distances not exceeding a mile. He ran forty-two times and won twenty races, including the valuable Royal Plate for two-year-olds, the Derby Gold Cup, Portland Plate, Wokingham Stakes and Hurst Park Gold Cup. The total value of stakes won amounted to $77,750.

The Gold Cup at Harst Park was an historical Gold Cup. The total value of stakes won amounted to $77,750.

The Gold Cup at Hurst Park was an historical affair. The tropiny was given by Joe Davis for a match between Eager (then reckoned our channion sprinter) and Royal Flush, which in American hands had made tremendous improvement. The respective jockeys were Mornington Cannon and Lester Reiff, and amidst entiusiastic cheering the Englishman won easily.

At the stud Eager was successful, though he only sired one classic winner, this being Electra, which wom the One Thousand Guineas for L. Neumann last year, Other good winners sired by Eager were Duke of Sparta (Lincolushire Handicap), Snatch, Beesswax, Tiptoe II., Petit Bleu, Eastern, Crusader, Nirvanah, Nero, Whistling Rufus, Prince Rupert and Meleager. He also got a winner of the Belgian Derby in Walkyrie, His best year was 1909, when his stock won thirty-eight races of the value of $71,520,—London Sporting Life.

Went to post at 2:55. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Woa cantering; second and third driving. RALEIGH P. D., greatly favored by the going, ran into a long lead on the far turn and, holding it, easily won pulled up. JEST made up ground from a slow beginning and finished resolutely, but had no chance with the winner. PHIL MOHR also closed a gap and made a game effort through the stretch. SHOOTING SPRAY and PRIDE OF LISMORE ran prominently to the stretch, then quit badly. 93155 FIFTH RACE-1 Mile. (69104-1:38%-4-95.) Purse $300. All Ages. Selling. Net value to winner $250.
